General instructions

The boats are to be left on the trailers on arrival. They will be off-loaded and rigged on Friday morning when the crews arrive.

The trailers will be left on site with these exceptions:

1. Derwent Water where the trailer will be left at Keswick Rugby Club (see map) until it is needed on Sunday.
2. The Upton trailer will take the Upton boat initially at Ullswater to Bassenthwaite Lake on Saturday afternoon after the row has finished. The trailer will be left at Bassenthwaite Lake until after the row on Sunday when it will return to Ullswater with the 2 Upton boats and collect the 2 Lancaster John O'Gaunt boats

Access to Venues

Derwent Water— Lakeland Rowing Club, The Isthmus, Keswick, Cumbria, CA12 5EW
Contact number for Lakeland RC—Chris Pratt, Chairman 07535 511552

Directions

The trailer will be parked here over night in one of the gaps in the trees.

Bassenthwaite Lake—Bassenthwaite Sailing Club Dubwath, Bassenthwaite Lake,
Cockermouth CA13 9YD Tel 01768 776341

Directions

From Junction 40 on the M6 travel west on the A66 for some 40 km. After a section of narrow and windy dual carriageway take a right turn onto the B5291. After 100m fork right remaining on the B5291. After a further 200m you will see the entrance to the sailing club on the right. There is a sliding security gate. You will either be given a code to open the gate or someone will be there to open it for you.

After passing through the gate go straight ahead for 100m on a narrow surfaced road until it turns sharp left. The trailers can be left on the grass straight ahead but check how soft the ground is before proceeding off the hard road.

Ullswater — Ullswater Yacht Club Thwaite Hill, Howtown, Penrith CA10 2NA Tel 07704

Directions

From Junction 40 on the M6 travel west on the A66 for 1.5km to an island where you turn left onto the A592. Continue on this road for 6km until a junction with the B5320 is reached. Turn left and after 750m cross the river into the village of Pooley Bridge. Continue for 250m through the village and take a right fork and then a right turn at a cross roads after a further 225m. Follow this narrow road for 2.5km to find the entrance to Ullswater Yacht Club on the right.

The gate should be open, if not ring the number above for help. Go straight ahead on a surfaced road for 170m to the edge of the lake. Our trailer park and boat storage area is on a grass strip on the right hand side adjacent to the water. Check how soft the ground is before proceeding off the hard road
